2.2 "Address Register" means the register of addresses of the Members which shall be maintained by the Secretary of the Property Owners Association. Such register shall reflect each

3.2 The Members shall meet annually at the office of the Property Owners Association or at such other place in Palm Beach County, Florida, as determined by the Board and as designated in the notice of such meeting at 7:30 P.M. Eastern Standard Time on the fourth Wednesday in the month of April of each year ("Annual Members Meeting") commencing with the year 1988; provided, however, that if that day is a legal holiday, then the meeting shall be held at the same hour on the next succeeding Wednesday which is not a legal holiday. The purpose of the Annual Members Meeting shall be to hear reports of the officers, to elect members of the Board and to transact any other business authorized to be transacted by the Members.

3.3 Special meetings of the Members shall be held at any place within Palm Beach County, Florida, whenever called by the President, or in his absence, the Vice President, or a majority of the Board. A special meeting must be called by the President or Vice President of the Property Owners Association upon receipt of a written request from one-third (1/3) of the entire Membership.

3.4 A written notice of all meetings of Members (whether the Annual Members Meeting or a special meeting of the Members) shall be mailed by regular mail or delivered to each Member entitled to vote at such meeting at the address that appears in the Address Register not less than fourteen (14) days nor more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of such meeting. Proof of such mailing or delivery shall be given by the affidavit of the person who mailed such notice. The notice shall state the time and place of such meeting and the object for which the meeting is called and shall be signed by an officer of the Property Owners Association. Any provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, notice of any meeting may be waived by any Member before, during or after such meeting, which waiver shall be in writing.

3.5 The Membership may, at the discretion of the Board, act by written agreement in lieu of a meeting provided that written notice of the matter or matters to be determined by such Members is given to the Membership at the addresses and within the time periods set forth in Section 3.4 hereof or is duly waived in accordance with such Section. Any determination as to the matter or matters to be determined pursuant to such notice by the number of persons that would be able to determine the subject matter at a meeting shall be binding on the Membership, provided a quorum of the Membership responds in writing to such notice in the manner set forth in the notice. Any such notice shall set forth a time period during which time a response may be made thereto.

3.6 A quorum of the Membership shall consist of persons entitled to cast a majority of the votes of the entire Membership. A Member may join in the action of a meeting by signing and concurring in the minutes thereof, and such a signing shall constitute the presence of such parties for the purpose of determining a quorum. When a quorum is present at any meeting and a question is presented, the holders of a majority of the voting rights present in person or represented by written proxy shall be required to decide the question. However, if such question is one which by express provisions of the Declaration of Covenants or Articles requires a vote other than such majority vote, then such express provision shall govern and control the required vote on the decision of such question.

3.7 If any meeting of the Membership cannot be organized because a quorum is not in attendance, the Members who are present, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. In the case of the adjournment of a meeting, notice to the Members of such adjournment shall be in the manner determined by the Board.

3.8 Minutes of all meetings shall be kept in a businesslike manner and shall be available for inspection by the Members or their authorized representatives and Directors at all reasonable times. The Property Owners Association shall retain the minutes of the meetings for a period of not less than seven (7) years.

Proxies shall be in writing and shall be valid only for the particular meeting designated therein and any adjournments thereof if so stated. In no event shall a proxy be valid for a period in excess of ninety (90) days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given. A proxy must be filed with the Secretary of the Property Owners Association before the appointed time of the meeting in order to be effective. Any proxy shall be revocable at any time with or without cause by the Member executing it. No one person shall be permitted to hold more than five (5) proxies.

Section 4. Board of Directors, Directors' Meetings.

4.1 The form of administration of the Property Owners Association shall be by a Board of Directors who shall be elected by the Members at the Annual Members Meeting. The first Board shall consist of three (3) Directors and at no time thereafter shall there be less than three (3) Directors nor more than fifteen (15) Directors on the Board. The number of Directors on each Board subsequent to the first Board shall be determined by the Members at the Annual Members Meeting.

4.2 The term of each Director's service shall extend until the next Annual Members Meeting and/or until his successor is duly elected and qualified, or until he is removed in the manner elsewhere provided herein.

4.3 Vacancies in the Board shall be filled by persons elected by the remaining Directors. Any such person shall be a Director and have all of the rights, privileges, duties and obligations of a Director elected at an Annual Members Meeting and shall serve for the term prescribed in Section 4. 2 of these Bylaws.

4.4 A Director may be removed from office for any reason deemed by the Members to be in the best interest of the Property Owners Association upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the total votes of all Members cast at a special meeting of the Members called by ten percent (10%) of the Members in accordance with the notice requirements of Section 3.4 herein. However, before any such Director is removed from office, he shall be notified in writing that a motion to remove him will be made prior to the meeting at which said motion is to be made, and such Director shall be given an opportunity to be heard at such meeting should he be present prior to the vote on his removal.

4.5 The organizational meeting of a newly elected Board shall be held within ten (10) days of their election at such place and time as shall be fixed by the Directors at the meeting at which they were elected. No further notice of the organizational meeting shall be necessary.

4.6 Regular meetings of the Board may be held at such time and place as shall be determined a majority of Directors. Special meetings of the Board may be called at the discretion of the President, or in his absence, the Vice President. Special meetings must be called by the Secretary at the written request of one-third (1/3) of the Directors.

4.7 Notice of the time and place of regular and special meetings of the Board, or adjournments thereof, shall be given to each Director personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph at least three (3) days prior to the day named for such meeting. Any Director may waive notice of a meeting before, during or after such meeting, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the receipt of notice by such Director.

4.8 A Quorum of the Board of Directors shall consist of the Directors entitled to cast a majority of the votes of the entire Board. Matters approved by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the official acts of the Board, except as specifically otherwise provided in the Declaration of Covenants, the Articles or elsewhere herein. If at any meetings of the Board there shall be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. At any adjourned meeting any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted. In the case of the adjournment of a meeting, notice to the Directors of such adjournment shall be as determined by the Board.

4.9 The presiding officer at Board meetings shall be the President.

4.10 Directors shall not receive any compensation by virtue of their service as Directors.

4.11 Minutes of all meetings of the Board shall be kept in a businesslike manner and be available for inspection by Members or their authorized representatives and Directors at all reasonable times. The Property Owners Association shall retain the minutes of the meetings for a period of not less than seven (7) years.

4.12 The Board shall have the power to appoint Executive Committees of the Board consisting of not less than three (3) Directors. An Executive Committee shall have and exercise such powers of the Board as the Board delegates to such Executive Committee.

4.13 Meetings of the Board shall be open to all Members. Unless a Member serves as a Director or unless he has been specifically invited by the Directors to participate in a meeting, the Member shall not be entitled to participate in any meeting of the Board, but shall only be entitled to act as an observer. If a Member not serving as a Director or not otherwise invited by the Directors to participate in a meeting attempts to become more than a mere observer at such meeting or conducts himself in a manner detrimental to the carrying on of such meeting, then any Director may expel said Member from the meeting by any reasonable means which may be necessary to accomplish such expulsion. Also, any Director shall have the right to exclude from any meeting of the Board any person who does not or cannot provide sufficient proof that he is a Member, unless said person was specifically invited by the Directors to participate in such meeting.

Section 5. Powers and Duties of the Board of Directors.

All of the powers and duties of the Property Owners Association shall be exercised by the Board of Directors unless otherwise specifically delegated to the Members. Such powers and duties of the Board shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Covenants.

Any officer may be removed without cause from office by a vote of the Directors at any meeting of the Board.

6.2 The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Property Owners Association. He shall have all of the powers and duties which are usually vested in the office of the president of a property owners association, including, but not limited to, the power to appoint such committees at such times from among the Members as he may in his discretion determine appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Property Owners Association.
